

LaRouche paper sued

CHICAGO (UPI) — A leader of the International Green party filed a $4 million libel suit Wednesday against a newspaper published by the political organization of right-wing extremist Lyndon LaRouche.

The suit was filed on behalf of Randy Toler in Cook county Circuit court.

Toler charges in the suit that the New Solidarity Illinois Tribunal and its publisher acted "with reckless disregard for the truth" and "in a grossly irresponsible manner" in articles which labled him a defender of drugs, an ally of the Soviet Union and a terrorist.

THE SUIT specifically refers to two articles published on June 9 and June 16.

The suit contends the headline on the first story, "Soviet-Allied Greens are in Illinois — Defending Drugs!," refers to Toler with false and untrue statements.

The second article, headlined "Illinois Greens — Dope + Terrorism," and information contained within the story also malign Toler with false and untrue statements, the suit charges.

Named as defendants in the suit are the New Solidarity newspaper, also known as Illinois Tribunal, Campaigner Publications Inc.; the National Democratic Policy committee; Sheila Jones, the organization's mid-west director, and the New Solidarity International Press service
